The Johnny McCuaig Band mixes traditional Canadian east coast jigs with the modern power of radio rock music. You'll jump out of your seat to clap and dance along to the band as they rip through rocked up versions of old standards like Ten Penny Bit and Patty's

Leather Breeches along with some new modern rock anthems like Here We Go currently used by the Saskatchewan Roughriders as their take the field fight song. Between songs the band reaches out and connects with the audience in their casual fun way that shows that they not only take their rock music seriously, but have a great sense of humour too and know how to laugh and engage with the crowd. Let the party begin! Join the McCuaig Brigade!
